About Us

The School of St Jude is a pioneering leader in charitable education within Africa. Every year, we give 1,800 students with free, quality education, 100's of graduates with access to higher education, and provide more than 20,000 government school students with quality teachers. St Jude's is funded by generous supporters from around the world who make our mission of giving bright, poor Tanzanian students a free, quality education possible.

Who are you

- You are passionate about teaching and committed to positively impacting students' lives.
- You are hardworking and dedicated to continuously improving your teaching methods.
- You are flexible and adaptable, thriving in a dynamic and culturally diverse environment.
- You are knowledgeable in technology and enthusiastic about teaching typing and computer skills.
- You are self-driven and have a great ability to write reports and track data.
- You go to sleep at night dreaming about empowering students with the skills they need for their future.

What you'll do

- Plan, prepared and deliver engaging ESL and typing lessons catering to students' diverse needs.
- Assess and monitor students' progress, providing feedback and support to help them achieve their language and typing proficiency goals.
- Collaborate with colleagues to create a supportive and effective learning environment.
- Develop and implement lesson plans that align with curriculum objectives and educational standards.
- Participate in school events, extracurricular activities, and professional development sessions to enhance your teaching skills.

What we're looking for

- A degree in Education, English, or a related field
- At least 2 years of experience teaching ESL and typing/computer skills to students of various age groups and proficiency levels.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to engage and motivate students.
- Proven ability to adapt teaching methods to meet the needs of individual learners.
- A proactive and positive attitude, with a commitment to continuous improvement and lifelong learning.

Why us

- The opportunity to use your talents and expertise to fight poverty through education and make a positive impact in Tanzania
- A flexible and supportive community of international and local employees
- Ample opportunities for career progression and development
- Mid-morning tea and lunch (during working days)
